THE SEASON OF THANKSGIVING

By

George McNulty

In the season of Thanksgiving, we have indeed much to be thankful for, including the country in which we live. In America, we can, for the most part, practice our faith without fear of physical danger. We live in a land of plenty...in fact, a land of great abundance. The choices in food and entertainment are incredible. In other parts of the world, food is a luxury; yet, here in America, it has in itself become a form of entertainment.

It is a great comfort that one can truly be free and provide for one's family in all the essentials of life. I for one am thankful that I may read the Bible and, through that, provide the spiritual bread and water so needed by our souls. Paul writes of his comfort in Rom 8:38-39: "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Nothing in the physical world compares to the gift of God's only-begotten Son, who came to earth to be the atonement on the cross for our sin...and all blessings will come because of our obedience to Him. All good things come from God. He has prepared a crown and a kingdom for us, and will give us what we need on our way to our Heavenly home.

I am thankful that, through Christ, I am justified, just as if I'd never sinned and been outside the providence of God. Men may justify themselves, though the accusations are in full force against them; but true justification only comes from God. By Christ, we are secured. By the merit of his death, our debt has been paid, a debt that could never be paid except with the pure blood of the innocent Lamb of God. We are thankful that He is risen. Matthew 28:6 is convincing evidence that Divine justice was satisfied. That's the type of friend and Saviour we have, and He sits at the right hand of God; all power is given to him. He brings us peace and comfort beyond measure, and He is making intercession for you and me this very hour!

Does your soul say within you, "Oh, that He were mine and I were his; that I could please Him and live to serve Him! To live by his ways and his will and in his good graces." Please don't perplex your thoughts in fruitless, endless doubtings. When you are convinced of your ungodliness, believe on Him who justifies the ungodly and obey His commands. You may be condemned, but Christ died and arose for you. Flee to Him. Jesus said in Matt 4:19, "Follow me." He leads by example, so follow the Christ, run after Him, seek Him with all of your might. Do not rest until you know you are right with Him on His terms. He loves you and paid a King's ransom for your soul.

I am thankful to know that, to Him who made us all, His children were worth the sacrifice. God manifested His great love in giving His own Son for the sins of the world, and there is nothing that can cause Him to stop loving us. Brethren, we have so much to be thankful for! Our precious Lord gave all for us. Let us remember Him at all times for his courageous deeds and loving care. For the Christian's Thanksgiving, it's not just a holiday...it is a way of life and an incomparable joy!
